

SPORTS LAWYERS JOURNAL

VOLUME 8

SPRING 2001

NUMBER 1

---

Table of Contents

Antitrust and Sports—Why Major League Soccer Succeeds Where Other Sports Leagues Have Failed Paul D. Abbott .....	1
Give Me $25 on Red and Derek Jeter for $26: Do Fantasy Sports Leagues Constitute Gambling? Michael J. Thompson .....	21
Offensive Interference: How Communities Have Harnessed Market Forces to Retain NFL Franchises, Eliminating the Need for H.R. 3817's Proposed Antitrust Exemption Steven John Kolas .....	43
In the Fast Lane to Big Bucks: The Growth of NASCAR Michael A. Cokley .....	67
Tax Considerations for U.S. Athletes Performing in Multinational Team Sport Leagues or “You Mean I Don’t Get All of My Contract Money?!” Kevin Koresky .....	101
Restoring Joy to Bracketville: Problems Facing College Basketball Stimulate Responses from the NCAA and the Newly Formed Student Basketball Council John Slosson .....	125
Football Helmets and Products Liability Brian James Mills .....	153

Eliminate Violence from Sports Through Arbitration, Not the Civil Courts Jeffrey M. Schalley .....	181
Instant Repay: Upon Further Review, the National Football League's Misguided Approach to the Signing Bonus Should Be Overtured David J. Sipusic .....	207
America's Cup, The Ideal Example of Sportsmanship Sarah Catherine Berges .....	249
Structural Barriers in Antidoping Measures An Essay by Daniel P. Fox .....	271
Tulane Moot Court Mardi Gras Invitational: Problem.....	281
Winning Brief.....	297
Cumulative Index (Volumes 1-9): Table of Cases Discussed.....	329
Subject Index.....	339