

SPORTS LAWYERS JOURNAL

VOLUME 13

SPRING 2006

NUMBER 1

Table of Contents

For Power and Glory: State-Sponsored Doping and Athletes' Human Rights Nikki Dryden	1
Athletic Scholarships as Unconscionable Contracts of Adhesion: Has the NCAA Fouled Out? Sean M. Hanlon	41
Successful Challenge, Ruling Reversed: Why the Office of Civil Rights' Survey Proposal May Be Well-Intentioned but Misguided Robin M. Preussel	79
I'll Trade You Scott Podsednik for Alex Rodriguez: Fantasy Trademark and Copyright Protection Jay T. Cohen	133
A Sure Bet: Why New Jersey Would Benefit from Legalized Sports Wagering Michael Levinson	143

The NHL Lockout: The Trickle- Down Effect on European Hockey Anders Etgen Reitz	179
Fourth Down and an Appeal: The Nonstatutory Exemption to Antitrust Law in Clarett v. National Football League Jeffrey Hoffmeyer	193
Boxing: Why It Should Be Down for the Count Antoinette Vacca	207
Is the Rooney Rule Affirmative Action? Analyzing the NFL's Mandate to Its Clubs Regarding Coaching and Front Office Hires Bram A. Maravent	233
“Only Orphans Should Be Allowed To Play Little League”: How Parents Are Ruining Organized Youth Sports for Their Children and What Can Be Done About It Jenni Spies	275
Tulane Moot Court Mardi Gras Invitational: Problem	291
Winning Brief.....	305