Table of Contents

   David Amell.............................................................................1

Should the Criminal Courts Adjudicate On-Ice NHL Incidents?
   Jennifer Marder......................................................................17

Is the T-Shirt Cannon “Incidental to the Game” in Professional Athletics?
   Scott B. Kitei..........................................................................37

Penalties, Fouls, and Errors: Professional Athletes and Violence Against Women
   Carrie A. Moser......................................................................69

Title IX: How Title IX Should Be Interpreted to Afford Women the Opportunities They Deserve in Intercollegiate Athletics
   Eric Bentley............................................................................89

NFL vs. Sherman Act:
   How the NFL’s Ban on Public Ownership Violates Federal Antitrust Laws
   Genevieve F.E. Birren..........................................................121
Professional Athletes and Sports Teams:
The Nexus of Their Identity Protection
  Dannean J. Hetzel.................................................................141

Irvine v. Talksport Ltd.: Snatching Victory from the Jaws of Defeat—English Law Now Offers Better Protection of Celebrities’ Rights
  Peter M. Bryniczka...............................................................171

Opening the Floodgates:
The Effects of Flexible Immigration Laws on International Basketball Players Seeking Employment in the NBA
  Trey Miller ...........................................................................195

The Legal Status of Professional Athletes:
Differences Between the United States and the European Union Concerning Free Agency
  Andreas Joklik......................................................................223

The Trading Game:
NFL Free Agency, the Salary Cap, and a Proposal for Greater Trading Flexibility
  Ari Nissim ............................................................................257

Tulane Moot Court Mardi Gras Invitational:
Problem ................................................................................273
Winning Brief.......................................................................309