Table of Contents

For Power and Glory:
State-Sponsored Doping and
Athletes’ Human Rights
_Nikki Dryden_............................................................................1

Athletic Scholarships as Unconscionable
Contracts of Adhesion:
Has the NCAA Fouled Out?
_Sean M. Hanlon_......................................................................41

Successful Challenge, Ruling
Reversed: Why the Office of Civil Rights’ Survey Proposal May Be Well-Intentioned but Misguided
_Robin M. Preussel_..................................................................79

I’ll Trade You Scott Podsednik for Alex Rodriguez:
Fantasy Trademark and
Copyright Protection
_Jay T. Cohen_.........................................................................133

A Sure Bet: Why New Jersey Would Benefit from Legalized Sports Wagering
_Michael Levinson_....................................................................143
The NHL Lockout: The Trickle-Down Effect on European Hockey

Anders Etgen Reitz

Fourth Down and an Appeal: The Nonstatutory Exemption to Antitrust Law in Claret v. National Football League

Jeffrey Hoffmeyer

Boxing: Why It Should Be Down for the Count

Antoinette Vacca

Is the Rooney Rule Affirmative Action? Analyzing the NFL’s Mandate to Its Clubs Regarding Coaching and Front Office Hires

Bram A. Maravent

“Only Orphans Should Be Allowed To Play Little League”: How Parents Are Ruining Organized Youth Sports for Their Children and What Can Be Done About It

Jenni Spies

Tulane Moot Court Mardi Gras Invitational: Problem

Winning Brief