

Public Workshop on Hypoxia in the Gulf of Mexico

August 13, 2015

9am-12 noon

University of New Orleans

A free workshop looking at the latest information on hypoxia in the Gulf of Mexico and efforts to address it

Speakers include:

Dr. Gene Turner, LSU Coastal Studies: Current Trends, Report from 2015 Gulf Hypoxia Mapping Cruise

Dr. John Lopez, Lake Pontchartrain Basin Foundation, Mapping Hypoxia in the Chandeleur Sound

Scott Edwards, USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service: Agricultural conservation initiatives in Louisiana and the Mississippi River Basin

Aimee Killeen, Louisiana Water Synergy Project: Industrial releases and reductions of nutrients in the Mississippi River Corridor

Tiffany Warner, Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality: Louisiana's Priority Watershed Program

Location: UNO Center for Energy Research and Management (CERM)

Conference Room 438

2000 Lakeshore Drive

New Orleans, Louisiana

Sponsored by the Louisiana Hypoxia Working Group and the Pontchartrain Institute for Environmental Sciences

For More Information, contact lmrsbc@gmail.com