

A TULANE MARITIME LAW SMORGASBORD

DECEMBER 10 AND 11, 2009
WYNDHAM RIVERFRONT HOTEL

The world-renowned maritime law program at Tulane University Law School is widely acknowledged to be the finest in the United States. No other maritime law program in the world offers as broad an array of courses covering such rich and varied subject matter.

This unique two-day CLE seminar enables you to sample the entire Tulane Maritime program in twelve one-hour long presentations by the Tulane professors who teach the relevant courses (plus Ethics and Professionalism). The presentations will feature a combination of cutting edge developments in areas of practice familiar to most attendees, and useful overviews of more specialized topics that will enhance your knowledge of Maritime Law.

If you did not study maritime law at Tulane, now is your chance! If you did, this seminar presents an opportunity to update your knowledge of the entire spectrum of Maritime Law and learn the newest developments in the field.
