Tulane Law Moot Court 2015-2016

JUDICIAL COUNCIL
Led by the Judicial Council Chair. Exercises review jurisdiction over issues arising under the Moot Court constitution, bylaws, competition rules, and any challenges to decisions of the Board of Administrative Justices and its officers.
Comprised of:
• Judicial Council Chair (a 3L Board Member, appointed by CJ)
• Two 3L Board Members (appointed or elected)
• Two 2L Board Members (elected)

COMMITTEE OF ADMINISTRATIVE JUSTICES (“AJs”)
Led by the Chief Justice (“CJ”). Responsible for administering all events and opportunities within the Moot Court Program. Offices in room 265 (the Moot Court Suite).
Comprised of:
• Chief Justice (elected)
• AJ for Academic Affairs (elected)
• AJ for Business Affairs (elected)
• AJ for Interschool Competitions (elected)
• AJ for Intraschool Competitions (elected)
• AJ for Invitational Competitions (elected)

MOOT COURT BOARD
The Moot Court Board is led by the CJ and the AJ for Academic Affairs. Its members are responsible for specific tasks necessary for the functioning of the Moot Court’s programs, such as brief grading, working with AJs in program chair positions, and recruiting competition judges. Board Members receive academic credit for their work provided they meet certain hours requirements.
Comprised of:
• Twelve 2L grade-ons
• 3Ls who graded on as 2Ls
• 3Ls who were on Interschool Teams as 2Ls
• 3Ls who were semi-finalists in the Intraschool Competition as 2Ls

INTERSCHOOL PROGRAM
Led by the Interschool AJ, the Interschool Program sends students to compete nationally and internationally each year.
Team members are selected during the fall Argue-on Competition.
Team members participate in regular practices and receive 1 academic credit per team.

INVITATIONALS PROGRAM
Led by the Invitational AJ, this branch runs the various competitions that Tulane Moot Court hosts each year.
Tulane will host the following in the Spring of 2016:
• Mardi Gras Invitational
• Inter-American Sustainable Development Law Competition

INTRASCHOOL PROGRAM
Led by the Intraschool AJ, the Intraschool Program provides oral advocacy skill-building and competition opportunities open to ALL Tulane Law students. Class champions in each discipline are selected, with the 3L class champions’ names engraved on the marble in Weinmann Hall room 110. Participants in the intraschool competitions do not attend practices or receive academic credit.