

Global Green president to speak at Tulane Law School Summit on Environmental Law and Policy

by John Pope, The Times-Picayune

Monday March 30, 2009, 7:41 AM

The president of the organization behind Brad Pitt's housing initiative in the Lower 9th Ward will be among the speakers this weekend at the 14th annual Tulane Law School Summit on Environmental Law and Policy.

In addition to Matt Petersen, the president of Global Green USA, the scheduled lineup includes Bill McKibben, an environmentalist and author.

The two-day conference, which will start Friday, will be in Weinmann Hall, 6325 Freret St. Optional tours of the Holy Cross neighborhood and the Manchac wetlands will be offered Sunday.

Tulane faculty and staff will be admitted free, along with all students. For others, the admission fee ranges from $60 to $250. More information is available at summit.law.tulane.edu.