CONTENTS

EDITOR’S FOREWORD 1

SYMPOSIUM ON CIVIL RICO AND MARITIME LAW

WELCOME.................................................. Elliott B. Nixon 5

AN INTRODUCTION TO RICO................. Joseph C. Sweeney 7

A SHORT HISTORY OF MARITIME FRAUD........................ R. Glenn Bauer 11

CIVIL RICO’S CAUSE OF ACTION:
THE LANDSCAPE AFTER SEDIMA............... Douglas E. Abrams 19

TAKING RICO TO SEA: A PRIMER ON THE USE OF RICO FOR THE MARITIME BAR........................................ Sanford E. Balick 53

PLEADING MARITIME RICO....................... Curtis E. Pew 69

THE EFFECT OF RICO ON MARITIME ARBITRATION....................... William P. Byrne 77

MARITIME RICO AS SEEN BY AN ARBITRATOR ....................... Jack Berg 85

MARITIME RICO—A CORPORATE COUNSEL’S CONCERNS....................... Manuel R. Llorca 95

THE ACCEPTANCE OF EMERGING AMERICAN LAW ABROAD: COULD “MARITIME RICO” WORK IN THE PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF CHINA?................. Mark Sidel 99
ADrift at Sea: The Muddled Relationship Between Civil RICO and Maritime Law ......................... Robert M. Jarvis 111

ARTICLE

The Citadel Survives a Naval Bombardment: A Policy Analysis of the Economic Loss Doctrine .......... Steven R. Swanson 135

COMMENT

Time Charterers, the New York Produce Exchange Form, and Personal Injury Liability .................... Edward C. Hammond 185

NOTES

Interaction of the Aggravation Rule and the Credit Doctrine Under the Longshoremen’s and Harborworkers’ Compensation Act: Strachan Shipping Co. v. Nash .................................................... Alexander N. Beard 199

Good Seamen Never Tangle Their Lines Or Never the Twain Shall Meet: An Analysis of the Constitutional and Jurisdictional Delineations of United States v. Reeh ................................................................. Mary H. Mason 209

Recovery for Cancerphobia and Increased Risk of Cancer Under the Jones Act: Hagerty v. L & L Marine Services, Inc. ..................................................... Marc J. Veilleux 219

BOOK REVIEW

ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME LAW
AND ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME LAW
PRACTITIONER’S EDITION, BY
THOMAS J. SCHOENBAUM.......................... Robert B. Acomb, Jr. 241

QUANTUM SURVEY: 1986..................... Mary Gaylene Cole 245