TULANE MARITIME LAW JOURNAL

VOLUME 15  SPRING 1991  NUMBER 2

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

THE PERSONIFICATION OF THE VESSEL IN UNITED STATES CIVIL IN REM ACTIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL LAW CONTEXT............... George K. Walker 177

AN INTRODUCTION TO PERSONAL INJURY AND DEATH CLAIMS IN THE PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF CHINA ............ Robert Force 245 Xia Chen

MARITIME LIEN STATUS FOR UNPAID HULL OR LIABILITY INSURANCE PREMIUMS: WHETHER THE NONPAYMENT OF HULL AND PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY INSURANCE PREMIUMS SHOULD CREATE A UNITED STATES MARITIME LIEN AGAINST THE INSURED VESSEL IN FAVOR OF THE INSURER...................... Chris Reeder 285

NOTES

CLASSIFYING CRUISE SHIPS AS COMMON CARRIERS UNDER THE SHIPPING ACT, A JURISDICTIONAL STRUGGLE: AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF CRUISE PASSENGERS V. CARNIVAL CRUISE LINES ...................................................... Daniel E. Eldredge 397
USING PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICT OF LAWS TO CHART THE MURKY WATERS OF CONTRACTUAL INDEMNITY: ANGELINA CASUALTY CO. V. EXXON CORP., USA.......................... Ethan Glaubiger 411

DROWNING IN UNOCCUPIED WATERS: ESTATE OF FAJARDO V. MAERSK LINE AGENCY .................................................. Timothy R. Lord 423

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING, OR STEP-BY-STEP DETERMINATIONS OF ADMIRALTY TORT JURISDICTION: SISSON V. RUBY .............. John O. Pickens, Jr. 439

SAILING THE STATUTORY SEAS TOWARD UNIFORMITY IN MARITIME TORT LAW: MILES V. APEX MARINE CORP. .................................................. C. Taylor Simpson 449

ON THE DUTY TO FOLLOW PRECEDENT IN APPLYING THE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY ACT: KEYS JET SKI, INC. V. KAYS ......................... Jeffrey S. Winder 465