Table of Contents

NFL and NBA Lockouts: A U.K. Lawyer’s Legal Retrospective
Kevin Carpenter ................................................................. 1

“If You Can Play . . . You Can Play”—An Exploration of the Current Culture Surrounding Gay Athletes in Professional Sports with a Particular Focus on Apilado v. NAGAAA
Michael Stefanilo, Jr. .......................................................... 21

How Clean Is Too Clean?: The Purposes, Effects, and Constitutionality of Super Bowl “Clean Zones”
Aaron Davis Rosenberg .................................................. 43

Track Conditions Uncertain: Analyzing the Need for the NLRB To Reassess Its Denial of Jurisdiction over the Horse Racing Industry
Courtney D. Hall ..................................................................... 71

A Costly Turnover: Why the NFL’s Bounty Scandal Could Change the Current Legal Standard of Deferring to Internal Disciplinary Sanctions in Instances of Game-Related Violence
Courtlyn Roser-Jones ........................................................ 93

I Could Have Been a Contender: Arbitration and the Ali Act
Jeremy Camacho ................................................................. 135

The Intersection Between the FDA’s Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act and the Anti-Doping Agency’s Regulation of Banned Substances for Athletes
Sara Arfmann ........................................................................ 159
Unnecessary Roughness? A Review of the NFL Commissioner’s On-the-Field Disciplinary Powers

Benjamin I. Leibovitz .............................................................. 187

Should Metal Baseball Bats Come with a Warning Label? Assessing Failure To Warn Claims Before and After Enactment of the BBCOR Baseball Bat Performance Standard

Tyler Tassone ........................................................................ 211

A Façade of Amateurism: An Examination of the NCAA Grant-in-Aid System Under the Sherman Act

Kemper C. Powell ................................................................ 241

American Sports Council v. United States Department of Education: Forty Years of Title IX and Still Standing (or Not)

Colton Puckett ................................................................. 261

Atkins v. Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan: Former NFL Defensive Back Tackling a Mixed Bag of Conflicting Medical Opinions Is Denied Increased Benefits

Jaime M. Miettinen ................................................................ 281

Tulane University Law School Moot Court Mardi Gras Invitational: 2012 Competition Problem ............................................................... 297

Winning Brief .................................................................... 319